women and girls.

What You Can See and Experience in 10 Days of Israel

You've always seen the pictures in wonder, and dreamed about being there yourself.

Lag Ba'omer in Meron. Thousands of Chassidim and every type of Yid dancing to uplifting music. Your face glowing in the reflection of the huge bonfires and leaping flames. The hushed kedusha inside the maa'rah, where you can daven for your heart's desire and where the great yeshuos happen. It's where every Yid wants to be on Lag Ba'omer. The joy, the power.

This year, you can be there.

Not only can you be in Meron for Lag Ba'omer - the most fervent dream of so many people - you can also explore Eretz Yisroel in a way you've never done before.

You want to make the most of your trip. Daven at the most mekomos hakedoshim and kivrei tzaddikim you've heard so much about. See the most beautiful parts of Eretz Yisroel. From the Kosel and Kever Rochel, from a private cruise on the Kinneret to making hand crafted chocolate concoctions at the De Karina boutique chocolate factory.

Whether it is your very first time in Eretz Yisroel, or you are returning, there is no better way to experience the magic, the beauty of Eretz Yisroel than with Azamru Tours.

Why?

Because Azamru is the ultimate tour for heimishe women and girls. It was created specifically for women like you. And Azamru is designed to give you the most value.

The premium, luxury tour - at an affordable price.

You will stay at the most comfortable and luxurious hotels in Eretz Yisroel. You will dine at gourmet steakhouses and restaurants with the best hechsherim. You will tour Eretz Yisroel with the popular American tour guide Rochel Schapiro, who is the granddaughter of the famous tour guide R' Pesach Levy. You will visit more attractions and sites than any other tour, with an armed security guard and licensed paramedic at your side, and have the most treasured memories to return to again and again.

Shabbos in Yerushalayim, exploring Tzfas, and being in Meron for both nights of the Lag Ba'omer hadlakah... The seudahs replete with gourmet homestyle delicacies by the acclaimed caterer Bassy Mandel nee Mashinsky of Monsey, whose sumptuous recipes are featured in the Binah.

It's 10 days packed to the brim with mekomos hakedoshim and amazing attractions. With fun entertainment and laughter. With new dimensions you've never known, with new places you've never seen.

It Starts Before You Even Go To the Airport.

Azamru treats you with white glove VIP service. It starts when you get transportation to your door to take you to the airport. It continues with all the small details, and the delightful surprises that make the tour fabulous and unforgettable.

Azamru. The premium tour for heimishe women and girls. Be empowered with the most wonderful tour, the most wonderful experience - the most powerful 10 days of your life.
